

NAB needs to back off. XM provides and invaluable service. Living near the beltway and being a member of our nation's Armed Forces, instant traffic and weather has been instumental in my as well as my fellow servicemen and women's ability to carry out our jobs. IF NAB does not like XM stepping on their toes, they need to buck up and dramatically improve their services.